IRELAND.

Dublin, September 10.

AST Wednesday Morning about 6 o'Clock, the Dublin Yacht by firing 3 Guns gave Notice of her being in the Bay, the Flags were displayed on Bermingham Tower and Warburgh's Steeple, the Streets were lined by the Army, and a Party of Horse were sent down to Ring'sand, where their Graces the Duke and Duchets of Devonshire, and the Lady Carolina lately landed about 10, and were met by several of the Nobility, who attended them to the Castle, where they were received by the Lords of the Council with the usual Formalities; his Grace being sworn, the Bells rung, the great Guns at the Barracks were fired, and answered by a triple Discharge of the Small Arms from the Soldiery, who were drawn up in College-Green. After a short Repose, their Graces went to his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Armagh's, where they were splendidly entertained at Dinner, and returned to the Castle in the Evening: The Night concluded with Bonfires and other Rejoicings, not common on the like Occasion. Such was the Effect of his Grace's many noble Virtues, the Fame of which arrived before him. It was remarkable, that a general Joy and Satisfaction appeared in the Countenances of every Body as he pass'd thro' the Streets; but nothing could be more pleasing than to see him reading two Petitions, which were presented to his Grace soon after his Landing, both which he read immediately.

Yesterday the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, Court of Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Dublin, waited on his Grace the Lord Lieutenant in their Formalities, to congratulate him on his safe Arrival in this Kingdom; and Eaton Stannard, Esq; their Recorder, made their Compliments in an elegant Speech, and the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor had the Honour of Knighthood conferred on him.

The same Day the Provost and Fellows of Trinity College, attended by the Doctors in the several Faculties, the Masters of Arts, and other Members of that learned Body, attended his Grace in their Formalities, and complimented him in a Latin Speech, by the Rev. Dr. Stewart, S. F.

His Grace dined Yesterday with the Right Hon. the Speaker of the House of Commons.

We hear from Waterford, that Major Stephen Palmer is married to one Miss Beddesham, lately come from Germany, a Lady of great Beauty, Merit, and Fortune. They are daily expected in Town.

An ODE on his Grace the Duke of Devonshire's being promoted to the Lieutenantcy of Ireland.

Humbly inscribed to his Excellency, by Mr. Robert Reading, only Son of the Hon. Colonel Reading, deceased

WHILE awful Cannon with tremendous Roar, Emit their Thunder from the trembling Shore: On this auspicious Morn, the rising Sun With pompous Glory, drove his Chariot on, Deck'd with transcendent Rays, Devonia's Lord, To whom Augustus had bequeath'd his Sword.

Hail Mercy! thou Impartial Grace!
That now has reach'd the Shore,
Triumphant Justice shews her Face,
And veils her Charms no more.

Remotest Sorrows lost in Air,
And once impoverish'd Mortals bear
A Look compos'd, contented Mien,
And Joy in every Aspect seen.

No Wonder! When Souls are to Pity inclin'd
Inspir'd with a gen'rous Politeness of Mind,
To nought but the Tranquil of Virtue resign'd.

Ever New, and ever Glorious
Ca'nst Bleissings will improve,
And an Age in Lines Historious,
Evermore record his Love.

Sweet Deportment, still engaging
Wisdom, future Bliss presaging
Calm, and gentle Sweets adorning
Years, as this delightful Morning
Shall eternally remain:

With Triumph and Pleasure,
Let's value our Treasure,
In Strains never tiring,
The Hero admiring,
Sincerely desiring his prosperous Reign,
The Nation's Advantage and Rig to maintain.

Devouring Time with staling Hours
May change th' immortal Scene we view:
As the Fountain Water pours,
May the next his Steps pursue.

Subjects like him in social Worth combine,
And as in Glory, so in Friendship shine.

Rescomon, Sept 6. Yesterday Morning died Mrs. Talbot, at her house at Mount Talbot. She was a Lady far advanced in Years, of a great Family, with a noble Soul abounding in Charity and Virtue, a Mother to the Poor and Needy, and scarce her Fellow can be found now, which makes her Death most universally lamented.

Extract of a Letter from on board Capt. Phelps of Bristol, dated at Malemba, on the Coast of Angola, May 27, 1737.

On the 9th Instant we arrived here, all perfectly well. The following Ships are already on the Coast of Angola, viz. At Loanga, the Old Queen Mary of Bristol (now in French Service) for 700 Slaves; a large Pink for 500; a Snow for 500. At Malemba, Capt. Phelps of Bristol, for 400. At Capebenda, the Pearl of London, Tomfon, for 550; the Betty Galley, Winster, for 450; and one large Frenchman for near 700. Neither of these (Winster excepted) hath 150 Slaves on board: So that when Capt. Foy in the Medway, Power in the Shepherd, and Hemley in the Morning Star, are arrived from Bristol (and without doubt several from other Places) what a Prospect shall we have for a quick Dispatch? All our Meat on board is quite rotten, and stinks horribly.

Hull was carried away on a Man's Back to Newgate, where he lay speechless, and thought past Recovery till the Monday following.

Canterbury, Sept. 17. On Wednesday last, Mr. Alderman Davis was elected Mayor of this City for the Year ensuing.

Houghton, whose Chambers were robbed about 5 Years ago in the same Stair Case, and of Mr. John

Warren; who succeeded the Captain in the same Chambers, and was robbed about two Months ago; and also the Goods of Mr. Ellis of Coney Court in the same Inn, whose Chambers were robbed about two Summers ago; and a good Number of valuable Books and Pictures stole at several Times from the Warehouse of Mr. Osborn, Bookseller in the next Court. #### The only short and infallible Cure

For that reigning Disease the SCURVY, and all Scorbutek Humours, tho' arrived to the highest and most inveterate Degree, or ever so many Years standing, and that without any tedious Cure, or the least Purgings, which by an unaccountable Mistake is generally advised, although always found rather to increase than confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the so much famed and most pleasant Chymical DROPS:

WHICH, without the least Trouble,

Confinement, or any Disorder whatever, do at once drive at the true Cause of the Scurvy, and entirely destroy it, and all Scorbutek Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, so as never to return again, as many Thousands of both Sexes have experienced, and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced, they almost instantly alter the morbid State of the Juices, purify the Blood, sweeten all the Fluids, cleanse them from impurities, and directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blisters, black and blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weakness of the Limbs, languid Humours, or the whole Body, swelling Pains, Weakness of the Back, and all the vast Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatism, and many other Difficulties. And for strengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, causing a regular and easy Digestion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Disorders of the first Passages (whence proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indispositions) no Bitters or any other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, inasmuch that besides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they also effectually and immediately cure the Green-Scurvy in Virgins. Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and almost all other Chronic Diseases, (which are chiefly occasioned by Indigestion and stagnant Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and certainly prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Diseases.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Restorative, strengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and as soon as taken, make the Patient pleasantly Light, brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and as a goal for all Sorts of Persons, to preserve as well as to procure a sound and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation these famous and pleasant Chymical Drops have to universally gain among Persons of Embrace, for their suddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutek Humours, and other Chronic Diseases, in such an easy and agreeable Manner, have occasioned many to imitate them, (under the same, and others under other Names: Be careful therefore not to be deceived) but be sure to have the Right, which by the Author's special Appointment, are to be had only at the Apothecary's, at the Two Blue Posts, in Haydon-Yard, in the 46. ports. at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

The Universal Family MEDICINE,

Still more and more fam'd, after upwards of Ten Years Success with the Publick,

Is sold by the Author's Appointment, at Mr. King's Pillar Shop in the Post-Office, near the Royal Exchange; at Mr. Martin's Toy Shop, the Sign of the Three Rabbits in Durham Yard in the Strand; and by Mr. Hildyard, Bookseller in York, at 3 s. the Bottle Retail.

It is to be taken at any Season of the Year, but especially in the Spring and Fall; it is so very agreeable to Young and Old, that Children take it without Trouble, a few Drops being Dose; and so gentle, that it weakens not the most delicate: For it is a safe and effectual Alternative (in a left Shift) where Purgings is not necessary; an Excellence inherent in this Medicine, which is a singular Property well known to the Learned, to be in some Cathartick Medicines.

It is in particular,

A Certain and infallible Cure for the SCURVY, tho' of the longest Standing, and attended with the most aggravated Circumstances (a Distemper so common to English People, that not one in a thousand is wholly exempt from it, and great Numbers are sorely afflicted with it) being a cordial Elixir, peculiarly adapted to that Effect in all its Forms of appearing, from the slightest Itching Humour in the Blood, to its utmost or last Efforts on human Nature.

For it is a true Specifick Cordial, that perfectly cures that Distemper by gentle Evacuation, by Stool and Urine, the only sure and effectual Way perfectly to cure the Scurvy, and prevent Relapses (notwithstanding what may be decreed to the contrary) the Truth of which is witnessed to daily, by the many Thousands that have taken this Medicine. It so powerfully rectifies the blood and Juices, that scrophulous Cases are also speedily cured by it; and all Spots, Blisters, Pimples, &c. on the Skin, are quickly and entirely taken off, the Patients made lively and brisk, many chronic Diseases prevented, and a due State of Health secured.

It removes all Pain from the Stomach, helps Digestion, opens Obstructions, and is peculiarly serviceable to Maids inclined to, or troubled with the Green Sickness. 'Tis the best Medicine in the World to destroy Worms in Children or grown People, and prevent their Return; for it scours away all crudity, viscid Humours which breed them in their Bowels, and is so well adapted to all Constitutions, that it is extremely esteemed both in City and Country, the most general Family Medicine that ever was known to preserve Health, and hinder no Business or Recreation.

Good Allowance is given Wholesale by Mr. King for ready Money to Country Shopkeepers, &c. to sell again. This Medicine will keep many Years in any Climate.

The Directions given with it are large and full.
